WHO played a role in creating ECGRA?

The Pennsylvania Race Horse Development and Gaming Act was passed by lawmakers in 2004 to greatly benefit Pennsylvanians by ensuring gaming jobs and gaming revenue aid local organizations and residents.

Because of this act, Erie County receives 1% of the annual slot machine gross revenue of Presque Isle Downs and Casino and returns it to Erie residents — known as local share gaming revenue. Erie County government receives the first half for county government operations and the Erie County Gaming Revenue Authority (ECGRA) gets the second half to invest in projects and initiatives that invigorate Erie County's economy.

Multiple dynamic leaders in Erie County, including then State Senator Jane Earl, pushed to create an independent Public Authority to manage the funds. In 2008, Erie County Council established ECGRA.

I didn't know much about ECGRA when I became the liaison, but I can tell you I learned real quick that they had their stuff together and that they were innovative.

- Jay Breneman,

Former County Councilman, District 4

WHAT is impact investing?

The ECGRA Board of Directors are charged with administering gaming funds through municipal grants and serving as Erie County Council's economic development authority. In the first year, the board went straight to work and seized on that opportunity, creating real, meaningful, and lasting impact in our community.

In 2011, the ECGRA board hired economic development practitioner Perry Wood to serve as executive director. Wood was charged with innovating and bringing to fruition a framework that uses gaming funds for impact investment, grants and loans in Erie County.

Impact investing is intentional investing — working to create a positive impact and directly benefit communities – without the use of taxpayer dollars.

Following the lead of respected foundations across the U.S, in 2014, Wood and the board of directors adopted an Impact Investing Policy and began investing gaming funds to drive social, cultural, and environmental change, as well as reap financial returns that help ensure Erie County's local share gaming revenue gives back to local residents in perpetuity.

Today, ECGRA is making impact investments in five key areas:

Youth & Education
Quality of Place

Neighborhoods & Communities

Municipalities

Small Business

HOW does

#ECGRAWork?

By working to build and improve a better future for all Erie County municipalities, non-profit organizations, small businesses, and residents, ECGRA strategically invests local share gaming funds for community and municipal economic development.

By utilizing gaming funds to fuel economic growth and build community, ECGRA has created an accessible and transparent process for consistent engagement with organizations countywide that has a significant economic impact throughout Erie County and Pennsylvania.

Since #ECGRA's inception in 2008, it has dedicated nearly $82 million to impact investments through grants and loans that touch every corner of Erie County.

66

"We receive funding from a number of grantors. ECGRA is among the best organized and efficient to work with. We appreciate the standardization of application and budgets, the straightforward reporting structure, and the fact that every contract and reporting document can be accessed in a moment online."

3.

ECGRA'S ROLE

ECGRA takes what it has learned and translates these components into clear guidelines – refining them through board level input. Following through with transparency and accountability, all ECGRA activities remain public knowledge.

66

"ECGRA brings honesty and eliminates the political waste of community progress money."

- Scott Rastatter – former County Councilman, District 6

IMPACT NEIGHBORHOODS & LOCAL COMMUNITIES

"The Building a Better Future - Community Facilities grant program is a saving grace to St. Martin Center's physical structure, programming, and mission. COVID impacted our ability to manage a costly new roof, and our current funding is allocated where it is needed most - which is to help Erie County families to have what they need to thrive. We are incredibly grateful to ECGRA for ensuring that we can be here for years to come!"

– David González, MS, CEO, St. Martin Center, Inc.

"ECGRA serves as community glue. They bring people together and they figure out how to utilize their resources to use small amounts of funding to make huge impacts in our community."

- Rock Copeland - County Councilman, District 3

"There's no way that our surrounding communities, especially most of my district, could survive without ECGRA funding."

- Chris Drexel – County Councilman, District 5

"If we didn't have that Authority, and we left it up to us Council members and our County Executive, and I'm saying this of any County Executive, you're putting it in the hands of politicians, and we tend to pay favors there and that money would not go to the right place."

- Terry Scutella – Chairman, Erie County Council, District 1

"ECGRA continues to fill a void of funding opportunities for agencies with capital needs, and understands the importance of preserving regional assets and funding community revitalization projects."

– John Popoff, Director of Operations, Boys & Girls Club of Erie

"The ECGRA presence in Erie is essential in impacting lives."

-Jennie Haggerty, Mercy Center for Women

"I think what's important to understand is that yes, there's grant making involved, but what we're really talking about is community making. You have people with skill sets and acumen, desire and passion to help make our communities work better, get things done faster."

- Emily Fetcko, CEO, Erie Downtown Partnership

"ECGRA funding has been so important to Union City, allowing over $800,000 in exterior improvements for residential properties. We would never have had that much spent in the fight to prevent blight if it wasn't for the Renaissance Grant Program. We thank ECGRA for their investment to make improvements to Union City."

IMPACT YOUTH & EDUCATION

"Without support from ECGRA, Mercyhurst Institute for Arts & Culture would be forced to reduce its programming, including its educational outreach to our students in Erie County and our Erie County residents. It would deprive them of not only world class performing entertainment, but the education that comes along with this kind of funding."

-Rich McCarty, Interim Vice President of Academic Affairs, Mercyhurst University

"I did a lot of research into ECGRA because they had such a bad reputation and I found that it was all unfounded. They do a great job. They thoroughly vet the people that come in looking for funds and they've got a great structured plan for how the money is dispersed and they really know where it's going."

"ECGRA brings honesty and eliminates the political waste of community progress money."

- Scott Rastatter
former County Councilman, District 6
